REVISE ENDIGUTT COAST DEFENCE

THE TIMES FOUNDED IN

Government to Condemn Land for Great Fortifications at Cape Henry

FOR PROTECTION OF THE ANIMALS

Senator Martin Called to the Bedside of His Dying Mother. Baker Thinks-Swanson Will Make the Best Executive State Ever Had.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 21.-Ef to have the government condemn forts to have the government condemn land for the site or the great fortifications which the army and navy board has recommended for Cape Henry at the southern extremity of the land at the entrance to Chesapeake Buy, have been begin in earnest, and will be pressed until the end of this session. Messurs, W. D. Southall and former Representative R. T. Thorp, of Norfolk, arrived here to-day for the purpose of presenting the claims of Cape Henry to recognition by the government in accordance with the board composed of officers of the army and navy, appointed to revise the Endicott plan of coast defense.

This report, as stated in this correspondence, recommended the fortification of Cape Henry in the strongest terms, in fact, the very strongest recommendation of the bear's was that the entrance to Chesapeake Bay be fortified by the mounthesapeake Bay be fortified by the mountage of heavy guins and mortars on Cape 2 corry, which a well of command the enrance to the bay.

Representative Maynard introduced a lift sometime ago providing or the aculirement of the necessary land at Cape I committee on Milliary Affairs (o grant hearing to the two Norfolk men menoued and said to-day he would probably be able to have then heard in a day r two. The board recommended that ortifications be erected on Cape Henry o cost $5,02.51. While the passage of the lift his session is not assured, there is to cost 5,102.51. While the passage of the bill this session is not assured, there is believed to be little doubt that the government will eventually recognize the importance of the recommendation of the board and have Cape Henry fortilied in accordance therewith. The cost of the fortifications mentioned above, does not include the cost of the land.

All sportanen will be interested in the ction of the Committee on Agriculture his morning in reporting favorably the bill introduced by Representative Lacey, f. Iowa, for the protection of animals, ords and fish in the national forest receives. The bill authorizes the President o designate such areas in the forest receives as should be set aside for the proceeding of birds beasts and fish, and be ecognized as breeding places. The bill provides heavy penalties for the violation of the law in killing or capturing game in the area designated by the President. The object of the bill is, specially, to protect migratory birds, such as ducks and geese, which breed in the northwest-report of the Linfon, but which are requently seen far-to the south. The cill states specifically that it is not iesigned to interfere with the operation of any local game laws as affecting private. State or territorial lands.

"Governor Swanson has already given indications that he will make one of the bost Chief Executives we have had." said Hon. W. W. Baker, member of the Virginia House of Delegates from Chesterfield county, who was here on his way to Philadelphia. "He is a man who appreciates the opportunities and responsibilities of his position. He is ready to take advantage of the one and to assume the other. Somebody asked him the other day whether he would be willing to allow the portraits of Governors of Virginia, now in the State Library, to be hung on the walls of the Virginia building at the Jamestown Exposition. He replied that he realized the value of these old portraits, but that he would be willing to allow them to be placed in the Virginia building, because he thought they should be there during the exposition. I did not vote for Swanson in the contest last summer, but he is a big man, and is going to show the people of Virginia so before his four years expire."

"Baker would make a good Governor," said Mr. L. Z. Morris, former president of the Richmond Chamber of Commerce, who was one of the froup.

"Morris is cruzy," said Mr. Baker, and the smile that overspread his countenance may have indicated his delight at the discovery, but harally.

Judge Humphreys, in His Decision, Reviews the Case in All Its Bearings-Question of Date Meets With Storm of

CHICAGO, March 21 .- All the meat packers who were indicted by a Federal to go free, the indictments found against indicted packers are members and others indicted packers are members and others are employes, are to stand. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the directions of the court.

A decision to the effect was handed down this afternoon by Judge J. Otis Humphrey in the United States District Court. The court reviewed the case in all its bearings, and all the essential facts which had been brought out, and concluded as follows:

"Under the law in this case, the immunity pleas filed by the defendants will be sustained as to the individuals and denied to the corporations, and the jury will find in favor of the government, as far as the corporations are concerned, and against the government as far as the individuals are concerned.

During the rendition of the decision the court was crowded by defendants and numerous spectators. Edward Morris and Edward Swift were in court, and both smiled happily when the decision was announced. J. Ogden Armour was not present, but some men prominent in the employ of Armour and Company, who were under indictment, were there, and their joy was great. When the judge announced, that the indictments would not lie against them, the defendants erowded together and shook hands.

Immediately following the d'smissal of the jury, District Attorney Morrison raised the guestion of the date for the trial of the corporations. He asked that the case be set for trial, and that it com-of the corporations. He asked that the case be set for trial, and that it commence within two weeks.

This met with a storm of protest from the attorneys of the packers, who insisted that they would be unable to prepare for the case before fall, pleading the number of witnesses which it would be necessary to bring to Chicago, the strain of the present trial and various other reasons.

After some discussion Judge Humphrey directed that the lawyers agree among themselves on a date and notify him of their decision next week. It is expected that the total number of witnesses in this trial, when it begins, will number at least 1,600.

"The act is a substitute to rome of the most cherished rights of the American citizen, which is the right to remain silent when questioned about any subject, the answer to which might incriminate him. It is conceded that the privilege amendment to the Constitution cannot be taken from the citizen without giving him something equally valuable in return. The privilege of the amendment permits a refusal to answer a question relating to the offense. The privilege must be claimed by the witness at the time. The immunity flows to the witness without any claim on his part. It is contended that the defendants in this case were volunteers, because they
